

Islington's "Big Society"

The localism agenda and how it impacts community organisations

Voluntary Action Islington, 200a Pentonville Road, N1 9JP
Wednesday 29th of June, 2011
12.30pm - lunch and networking, 1pm to 3pm - key speakers and Q&A

You are invited to the first 2011 Policy Lunch, organised by Islington Community Network and Voluntary Action Islington

Speakers will address key issues on localism:

- The role of new Ward Partnerships – Cllr Paul Convery, Executive Member for Planning, Regeneration and Transport
- Community Organisers – how will this work?
- The Right to Challenge – can community groups run council enterprises? – Jonathan Gibbs, former CEO, Aquaterra.

Join us to keep updated on this important area of change impacting residents, service users and the voluntary and community sector.

Voluntary Action Islington

To book please email: fateha.bashir@vai.org.uk
For further information please contact Duncan McLaggan on 020 7832 5829