2011 Volunteer of the Year Award Nomination Form (Organisation)

Voluntary Action Islington Volunteer of the Year Awards 2011

Voluntary Action Islington is very aware of the vital role that volunteers play in the community and want to recognise and celebrate the role that local organisations play in supporting volunteers. Local volunteers can nominate organisations for this award. At our AGM this year, we will be presenting the Volunteer of the Year awards, including an award for the organisation that makes the best effort to support local people to volunteer.

Eligibility:

1. Any volunteer working in Islington can nominate a local organisation for this award.
2. The organisation nominated must be benefiting the local community in Islington.
3. The organisation must involve volunteers in their work.
4. All sections of the nomination form must be completed.

Who can nominate:

Individuals or groups of individuals who are working as volunteers with an organisation that benefits the local community in Islington.

Nominees:

- Must be organisations that exist to benefit the local community in Islington
- Must involve volunteers in their work
- Must provide interesting roles and excellent support for their volunteers.

Prize:

The winner of the Volunteer of the Year awards will receive a certificate and a voucher. Winners will receive their prize at the Voluntary Action Islington AGM to be held on 9th November 2011 at the Voluntary Action Islington Centre, 200a Pentonville Road.

To be eligible for nomination for an award:

- Nominees must be locally based organisations working to benefit people living in Islington.
- The organisations must involve volunteers in their work.

There is a separate form to nominate individuals.
